BAPTIST YOUNG PEOPLE'S SOCIETY

Yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. R. S. Hall the Missionary Society of the young ladies and young married people of the Baptist church met. The society is devoting every Monday afternoon (except the first, which is a devotional meeting) to the making of dainty fancy work for a bazaar which will be held during the Christmas holidays. Salted almonds and mints were served by Mrs. Hall and a delightful social as well as a profitable time was spent. Several new members were enrolled. The society will meet next Monday at the home of Mrs. Knight of Oklawaha avenue.

A TRIBUTE TO TEDDY

A tot of a girl, the little daughter of an Ocala preacher, came into the Star composing room last evening about press time. In one hand she held her papa, in the other a teddy bear. Amid the clanking machinery and dusty type stands and tables, she looked like a rosebud that had fallen into a keg of nails.

"Well, little girl," said one tired printer, as her curly head showed over the imposing stone before him, "which do you like best, your papa or your teddy bear?"

"My teddy bear," promptly replied the little lady, and her paternal ancestor joined in the laugh against him.

MUST RAISE PRICES

Congressman Snapp, in an address delivered before the Illinois Daily Newspaper Association, recently, said:
"You newspaper men have seen the price of everything else advance but you have hung back and refused to increase the price of your papers. Everything has gone up. The price of labor in the printing business has advanced twice. The cost of paper has gone up enormously. And you sat still and took the loss meekly.
What you ought to do is to get together and meet the condition by advancing the price of your product to the public to correspond to the other advances."

The monthly Presbyterian social was held at the residence of Mrs. Jack Camp yesterday, also the meeting of the sewing circle of the Ladies' Missionary Society met at the residence of Mrs. R. S. Hall.

Mrs. Lanier, of Summerfield, who came to the city several days ago for medical treatment, died at the home of her mother, Mrs. Odom on Sanchez street yesterday. The funeral took place at the new cemetery this afternoon.

Mrs. R. A. Burford left today for Boston to see her son, Robert Allen Burford, ere he left with the United States fleet for the Pacific Ocean. Mrs.
Burford will visit Mrs. C. E. Abson at New Rochelle, N. Y., before returning home.

You will always receive courteous and prompt attention from the Hunter Drug Co.

Don't forget the musical treat, the concert to be given by the Mertens-Sheridan Concert Co. at the armory on the evening of the 21st, for the benefit of the library.

The funeral service was preached at the Baptist church over the remains of Mrs. A. T. Swartz, after which the body was taken to the old home in Brooks county, Georgia, for burial.

Mrs. Louis R. Chazal has issued invitations to a card party for November 27th, in compliment to Mrs. C. H.
Lloyd and Miss Louise Scott.

Come in and try some of the popular hot drinks served at the Hunter Drug Company.

Wouldn't it be funny if some of the
